Scam Emails

Chambers is aware that the identities of some of our barristers have been the subject of exploitation by criminal fraudsters. If you receive any form of unsolicited correspondence purportedly from any members of Chambers, probably containing some spurious financial proposal, it is a scam. Do not take any action, apart from notifying us. Please forward any such message to: clerks@kingschambers.com

No member of Chambers will ever contact a member of the public with regard to any legal matter. We would urge you not to send any personal details in response to any such message.

For more detailed information on this type please click on the link below which will take you to a dedicated police website regarding this scam.
